ENGAGING GIRLS ON CLIMATE CHANGE IN MADAGASCAR

Funding: US$500,000
to UNICEF USA

for every child

41% of the Madagascan population has access to basic water services; 17% to basic sanitation services and 23% to basic hygiene services. 81% of schools lack safe water and 31% lack basic latrines.

Goal: Support girls and a generation of children and adolescents by providing environmental education in Madagascar through child-friendly schools.

Approximately 119,000 students (including 66,000 girls) will directly benefit, and 1,500 teachers at 700 primary schools will indirectly benefit from school health and environmental action plans.

The most vulnerable populations are still the first victims of climate change in Madagascar.

Two weeks after cyclone Freddy swept the island from southeast to southwest, people affected by the disaster continue to live in unsafe conditions caused by rising waters in their neighborhood.

Engaging Girls on Climate Change in Madagascar

Deforestation has impacted approximately 94% of Madagascar's previously forested lands. Almost 40% of forest cover disappeared between the 1950s and 2000, including the reduction of almost 80% of Madagascar's "core forest."

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

- At least 540 girls and 1,500 teachers will be trained on water conservation, environmental education and menstrual health and hygiene.
- Five pilot schools will promote environmental education and reinforce hygiene and sanitation behaviors that promote children's access to education through gardens managed by child clubs under the supervision of schoolteachers. Community members will be educated about the impacts of climate change through trained healthcare workers, teachers, parents and students.
- At least 750 teachers at 700 primary schools will receive training on climate and environment, sanitation and hygiene practices, clean school environment and the development of disaster risk plans to enable learning to continue during natural disasters.

ENGAGING GIRLS ON CLIMATE CHANGE IN MADAGASCAR – RESULTS TO DATE

5 pilot schools are working to improve their WASH programs, including menstrual health and hygiene.

750 teachers are being trained to create disaster risk plans that will enable learning to continue during natural disasters.

1,315 girls, received WASH education, including menstrual health and hygiene, which is embedded into students' Life and Earth Sciences curriculum.

ADOLESCENT GIRLS' HEALTH AND PROTECTION IN PERU

Funding: US$750,000
to UNICEF USA

for every child

In 2020, national coverage of comprehensive health care for adolescents dropped by 63% compared to 2019. National coverage of adolescents who received mental health care fell by 50%.

Goal: Improve the capacity of services to respond to the health needs of adolescents, in particular adolescent girls, in a timely manner and prevent all forms of violence in schools and other services.

The project is expected to reach 50,364 adolescents (24,829 girls) in four regions throughout Peru.

ADOLESCENT GIRLS' HEALTH AND PROTECTION IN PERU - RESULTS TO DATE

49 health centers in Ucayali and Huancavelica have tools to collaborate with schools to protect students' mental health.

15 schools in target regions and 2,184 nationwide are implementing violence prevention protocols and a toolbox to implement health promotion actions.

76,300 girls in the target regions benefit from the violence prevention strategy (PREVI) in schools.

HER HEALTH AND DIGNITY, OUR PRIORITY

Funding: US$750,000 to UNFPA

Gender-based violence has detrimental and long-lasting consequences to the well-being, health and safety of women and girls.

Goal: All women and girls in Papua New Guinea (PNG) and Timor-Leste (TL) live life free from violence.

There will be an estimated 578,000 beneficiaries in PNG and an estimated 74,000 in TL.

HER HEALTH AND DIGNITY, OUR PRIORITY – RESULTS TO DATE

The Family Support Center in Alotau, Milne Bay Province, was expanded and refurbished.

The capacity of GBV service providers was strengthened through capacity building interventions in Milne Bay and Bougainville.

Health care providers in Milne Bay and Bougainville were trained on how to provide support to GBV survivors.

GLOBAL PROGRAMME TO END CHILD MARRIAGE

Funding:
US$1,200,000 to UNFPA and UNICEF
via UNICEF USA

Globally, 21% of girls are married while they are still children, robbing them of their childhood.

Goal: Scale up the Global Programme's activities to protect and empower girls, and ultimately help bring an end to the practice of child marriage.

The program's priority is engaging adolescent girls as key agents of change in 12 countries with high prevalence of child marriage.

GLOBAL PROGRAMME TO END CHILD MARRIAGE

- In the last decade, about 25 million child marriages have been prevented.
- Due to COVID-19, an additional 10 million girls are at risk of becoming child brides by 2030.
- The COVID-19 pandemic increased risk for child marriages by interrupting education, creating food and economic insecurity, disrupting programs and services, increasing adolescent pregnancy, and causing deaths of parents and caregivers.

GLOBAL PROGRAMME TO END CHILD MARRIAGE – RESULTS TO DATE

2.6 million adolescent girls received life skills and comprehensive sexuality education.

16 million community members were reached with community dialogues on ending child marriage.

11 of the 12 countries have national strategies addressing child marriage, out of which six are budgeted and implemented.
